An Irishman in a Black Suit

A reception honoring one of the community's most distinguished citizens will be given for the Right Rev. Monsignor John McDonagh Sunday in the Parish Hall of St. John of the Cross Church.

He has been named Pastor Emeritus of the church over which he has officiated for more than 20 years.

As many as a thousand persons may show up Sunday between three and five in the afternoon to honor him. Many will bring gifts of admiration and respect. Many will stand in awe because Father McDonagh is a fearsome little man who speaks his Irish mind incisively, but justly. His quick mind and tongue are counterbalanced by a generosity as big as all outdoors. Whatever he acquires is only temporary for he immediately gives it away.

The new pastor is Father Patrick Kearney, a man whom Msgr. McDonagh helped to priesthood. Father Kearney lived with Father McDonagh in Lemon Grove prior to his ordination. He, too, is a fine man. Msgr. McDonagh will remain in the parish calling on Catholic families in nearby areas not immediately served by a church.

Because Father McDonagh is frugal concerning himself and generous regarding others, the reception brings to mind an incident by which his character and generosity are revealed.

The incident concerns the attempt of a well-to-do parishioner to give the reluctant Father McDonagh a gift. The gift was to be a new black suit.

Because he has a penchant for giving to those he considers less fortunate than himself — and just about everybody fitted into that category — the donor wanted to make certain that the money for the suit didn't go to some other use.

He thought he had the solution to Father McDonagh's "weakness" when he presented him with a merchandise order for $100 that was good only for a suit and only good at a specific store — a better men's store in downtown San Diego.

But the salesman at the store, a brash, young man, made the mistake of trying to convert Father McDonagh to a higher priced suit of grey material. Spending $100 for a suit was bad enough, but a grey one! Such insolence made his Irish blood boil. He tore the money order into bits before the startled young man (who lost a sale but learned something about strong Irishmen).

Days later when the generous parishioner asked Father McDonagh about the suit, he confessed that he had acted badly at the men's wear store when he tore up the merchandise order. But he said that he was contrite.

The parishioner said soothingly that he, too, may have been wrong. He shouldn't have forced the priest to go to a specific shop. He elicited a promise from him that he would go to a shop of his choice and use the money for nothing except clothing. With such assurance, the man gave Father McDonagh $100 in cash.

A few days later the two met again. This time Monsignor McDonagh was resplendent in his new black suit. The parishioner complimented him on his good taste and fine appearance.

Father McDonagh's blue eye were twinkling with delight. "Yes," he said, the suit fits fine. Father Murphy went shopping with me. We looked at suits all day. We found a good black suit at Roberts Hall and they were only $49.50. So I bought one for Father Murphy, too."

Scheidle Outlines New Programs

Planning Districts; Community Councils To Play High Roles

Harry Scheidle, San Diego City Councilman, who will take office as a member of the Board of Supervisors Jan. 6, 1969, has indicated that he will dig into the community problems in both Spring Valley and Lemon Grove as soon as he can.

In a statement to this newspaper Scheidle indicated that the possible formation of a planning district as needed in the two unincorporated communities would be one of the first priorities on his job as county supervisor.

In making the statement, Scheidle said, "The first step of action would be required to be taken by the citizens living in the two communities.

Spring Valley, with an estimated 36,000 residents and Lemon Grove with a population count in the neighborhood of 32,000, would have to have community leaders implement the program in order to guarantee its success, Scheidle pointed out.

High Tax Rate

The councilman said, "We need the leaders of the communities to get involved in order to establish local controls to local people... with the board of supervisors acting as supervisors.

"We, as supervisors, should be able to supply the know-how, and the guidance that a community needs. We should also be able to supply the staff work, and the explanation why or why not a move can be made."

Another priority pointed out to Scheidle is that of doing something about the extremely high tax rate. He said, "There may be some method of consolidation that could be used in the various districts to save the people money."

"In the governmental agencies that I have been involved in we have attempted to pool community resources to distribute the costs to those who are involved.

"Matching funds could be used in a capital outlay as an incentive program to accelerate the program. The county would put up a pro-rated amount of money available," he said.

The councilman who is to vacate his seat soon said, "We are not going to turn the bottom upside down on the methods currently employed, but I will be attempting to use my knowledge along with that of the other supervisors to fit the needs of the community."

Lack Of Identity

He pointed out that the difference in the incorporated areas is that they have an identity while the unincorporated areas tend to have none.

"This is what we want to do... give to the unincorporated area the identity factor. These areas are as much of a community as any city or town is," Scheidle said.

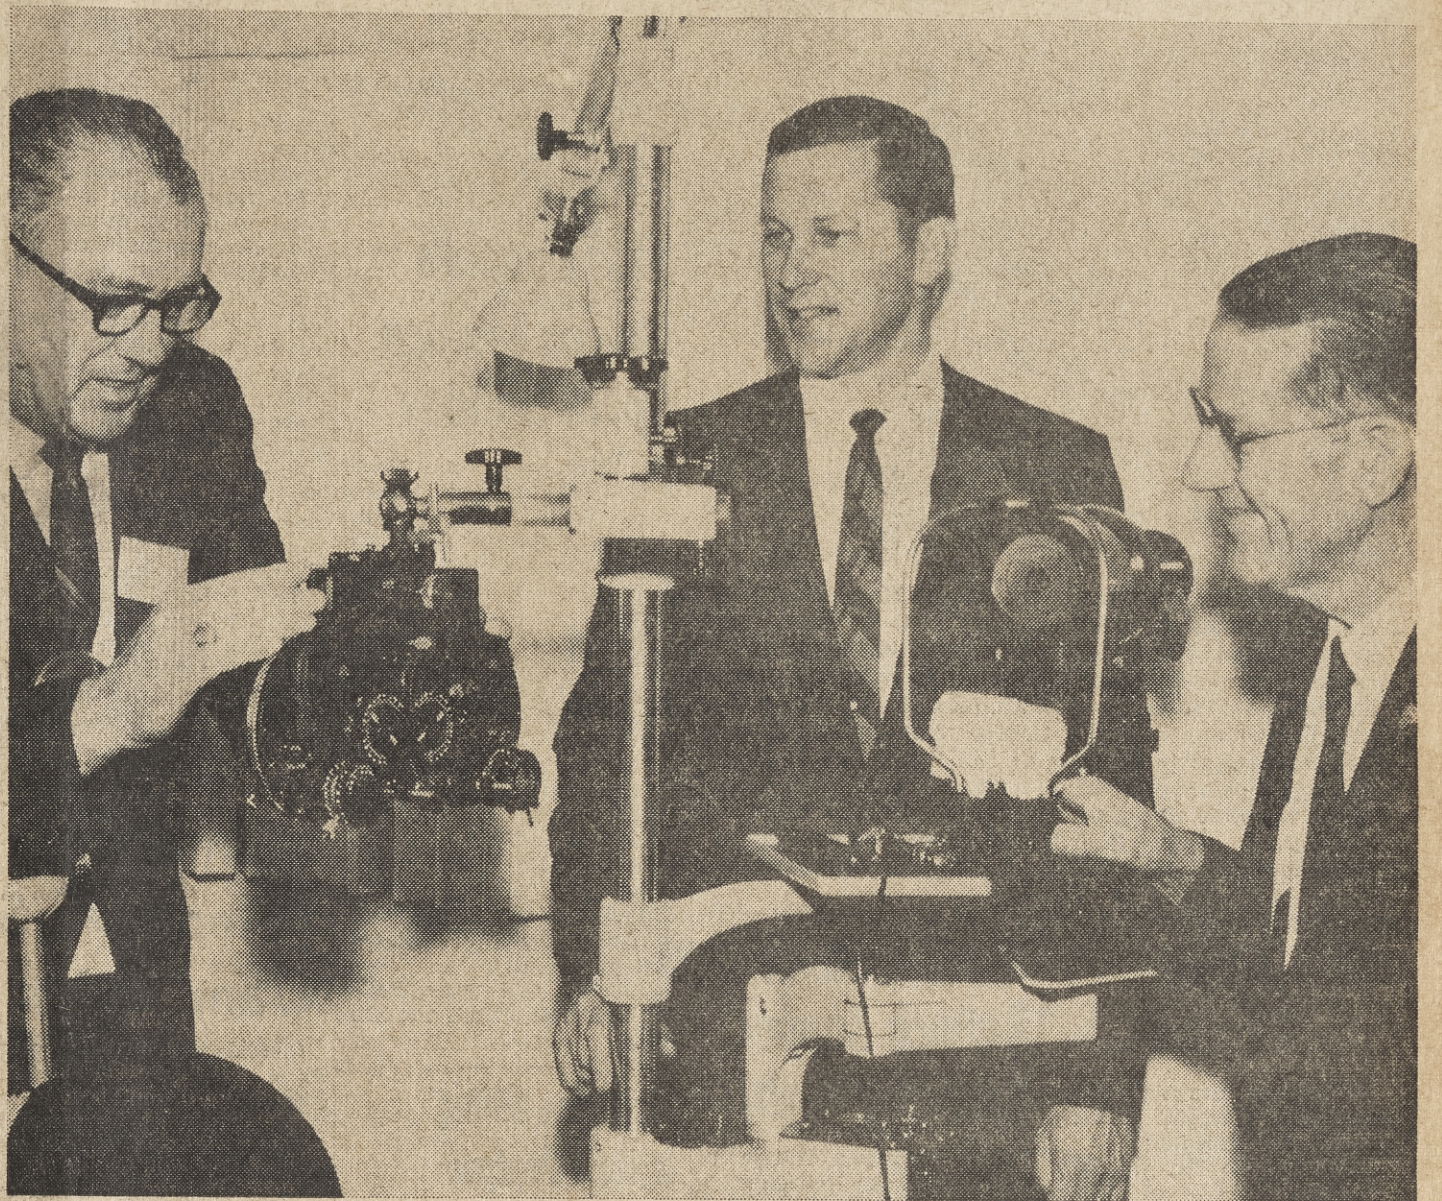

Spring Valley Success

Spring Valley currently has a set up where the Community Council acts as the sounding board for the community. It is made up of business, and civic leaders along with dedicated citizens.

William Fitzpatrick, acting president of the Spring Valley Community Council said, "We have had a great deal of success with the supervisor in the past.

"We have and expect to continue."

Reader Drive to Aid Retarded Home

An incredible total of 102 families are taking part in this newspaper's newest project — a subscription drive that will add more than a thousand new readers to this paper's reading family and at the same time aid the Home of Guiding Hands.

A portion of the proceeds, the amount to be announced later, will go to the Home for a landscaping project.

The Home of Guiding Hands, a residential facility for retarded children, is at 10025 Los Ranchitos rd., Lakeside.

The Home was opened in 1967 as the most progressive and complete residential facility for mentally retarded ever built. Many of San Diego's retarded, of all ages, will call this their home; most, for the rest of their lives.

Home of Guiding Hands is owned and operated by a group of local businessmen. It is a non-profit corporation and receives no funds from tax-supported agencies, United Community Services, or other Community Welfare organizations.

Total funding for construction was $2.2 million and was accomplished through private donations and grants.

Guiding Hands Open To Public

The first annual "open house" for public inspection of the Home of Guiding Hands will be held through Nov. 30 as a feature of National Mental Retardation Week. The showing started yesterday.

Conducting tours of the facility daily from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. will be William T. Gray, Executive Director; Donald E. Chambliss, Administrative Assistant; and Francis S. Bell, Public Relations Director.

Officers of M.E.C.R.O. (Municipal Employees Community Responsibilities Organization), the charitable organization of San Diego City Employees, including Duane Wolfe, chairman; Captain Hal Seelig, past-president; and "Miss MECRO", Judi Turmaine, opened the celebration when they toured the facility and presented a gift of $1,000.

Other distinguished guests have included Robert and Donna Humphrey, son and daughter-in-law of Vice President and Mrs. Hubert H. Humphrey; officers of general Dynamics Electronics Division Con-Trib Club; Camco Inc. of Los Angeles; and chairman of the 16th Southern District Federated Women's Clubs Juniors.

There were no funds for landscaping, however, and according to Francis S. Bell, director of public relations for the Home, landscaping funds are desperately needed to complete the project before the rainy season comes.

This newspaper decided to take on the sponsorship of this program when the television personality Mel Knoopp told of the need over Channel 8.

A continuing story will be published each week with the names of subscribers participating in the drive. (Continued on Page 5)

Radio-Equipped Trucks Patrol Freeways In New Public Service

HELPING HAND: Walt McDonald (left), along with Kim Bottlers (center) and Jan Magot (right) will be rendering free assistance to disabled motorists traveling San Diego freeways. The system, using five radio-equipped trucks will include a helicopter as part of the American Freeway Patrol. The first phase of the community service is being sponsored by the American Oil Company.

Five radio-equipped trucks have started patrolling the San Diego freeways rendering free assistance to motorists in trouble as the first phase of a new public service gets underway.

The service, known as the American Freeway Patrol (AFP), is being sponsored by the American Oil Company and is a comprehensive air-ground system of emergency road service and traffic reporting.

Trained mechanics man five service vehicles, which patrol the freeways in and around San Diego 17 hours a day to handle common road problems.

The AFP also will assist the detained motorist by relaying messages to family, friends or business associates who may be concerned over the delay.

The trucks carry water, gasoline and miscellaneous parts but are not equipped for towing. The AFP is working closely with police and tow operators to assist seriously disabled vehicles.

A motorist can receive AFP assistance by displaying a special black-and-yellow sign in the car's rear window. The signs, which read "Help — American Freeway Patrol," is available at American Oil service stations and at AFP headquarters, 419 Mission Valley Center-West.

Freeways which will be covered initially by the AFP include Interstate 8 between Taylor street in Old Town and Main street in El Cajon.

State Highway 94 east from Interstate 5 to the intersection of Interstate 8.

The air operation of the AFP will go into effect Monday when a helicopter begins issuing regular simultaneous traffic reports on five San Diego area radio stations — KOGO, KSDO, KCBQ, KSON and KITT-FM.

Both the air and ground units, which will be coordinated through the Mission Valley headquarters, will work closely with law enforcement and fire authorities.

Phone Rates Hiked, Effective December 2

When Pacific Telephone customers in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley open their bills next month, they will note a small increase in service rates.

Other nearby communities in the San Diego metropolitan area also are affected by a recent Public Utilities Commission order in which Pacific Telephone was granted $50.2 million in additional revenues.

The authorization, which becomes effective Dec. 2, falls far short of the $181.4 million requested by the utility.

Lemon Grove and Spring Valley residents, who presently pay $4.20 for single party service, will pay $4.90 in the future, whereas business house measured rates are being increased from $3.90 to $5.25 per month.

Subscribers with single party line service will also note a change in their bills as result of the PUC ruling.

Long distance rates also will be affected. Night discount rates will become applicable all day Saturday in addition to Sundays and holidays as at present.

The PUC also ordered that all party-line residence service in the San Diego Metropolitan Area be converted to message rate service by the end of 1971.

Other highlights of the PUC order are:

A formula for extended area service in communities outside the metropolitan areas has been developed and has been made a part of that decision. It fixes charges and rates for this type of service should communities desire it.

A one-party measured rate residence service will be es-

Dent Walloped In SV-LG, Too

How did this community vote for its supervisor?

Just about the same as the rest of the district according to the County News Association.

In Spring Valley it was Scheidle over Dent 3,818 to 2,976.

In Lemon Grove the ratio was 4,543 to 3,977.

Overall, Harry Scheidle trounced Bob Dent 50,026 to 41,320.

Dent said he did not see any set of circumstances by which he could have overcome the 9,000 vote spread.

When his service ends, Dent will rest, then take care of some real estate investments he and his wife own, he said.

'Second Family' Urged By Adoption Services

Jane Redwine, Chief of Adoption Services of San Diego County released the current issue of The Young Hopefuls describing some family groups of children available for adoption.

She said that Adoption Services keeps family groups together, and needs families interested in adopting two or more children at one time.

The Agency invites applications from couples who already have children as well as the childless couple. Couples who have grown children may be interested in a "second family."

Homeownership, large income, savings accounts and citizenship are not required.

Toastmasters Key In On Mother Goose Celebration

A colorful commentary on the 1968 Mother Goose Parade, to be held at 2 p.m., Sunday in El Cajon, will be provided by 16 parade announcers headed by Don Howard, KOGO Radio announcer.

Jack Maranda, Mother Goose Parade Association director in charge of announcers, said Howard will be stationed in the announcer's booth directly across from the parade reviewing stand. Fifteen other announcers will be stationed at two-block intervals along the parade route.

"As in past years, the Spring Valley Toastmasters 20-12 Club will provide the announcers for the parade," Maranda said. "The 15 announcers are selected in a speaking contest, and the runners-up assist the winners during the parade by acting as spotters, distributing programs, and helping to patrol the crowd."

Maranda said the announcers cover the entire parade and inform the audience about the floats, bands, marching units, and horsemen as each chapter of the parade passes by.

Television coverage of the 22nd Annual Mother Goose Parade marks several San Diego firsts.

The KOGO Production Center's televising of the parade is the first local color remote of the parade. It is also the first time the parade will be seen live in color and the first time the KOGO Production Center has employed its full color remote facilities.

The parade will be seen over KOGO-TV, Channel 10. The KOGO Production Center, which became functional Nov. 1, will inaugurate the special remote equipment including three color cameras from the parade site. The mobile unit will be stationed in El Cajon for this KOGO exclusive telecast.

Hosting the parade for KOGO. Fall of the year is when you reluctantly replace the vacation resort sticker with that of the candidate of your choice.

There is no waiting list for these children.

Because of past experiences many of the children are afraid to form a close relationship because they do not want to be hurt or rejected again. They need time know they are wanted and loved.

Miss Redwine said "families for the older child must not expect to receive love and satisfaction immediately, but they need to be able to wait for the child to express these feelings."

As a child learns to trust his new parents, these feelings and satisfactions will be forthcoming. In time they will truly belong to one another.

In addition to homes for older children and family groups, Miss Redwine said families are also needed for new born infants.

Adoption Services of San Diego County has offices located at 1140 Union st., in San Diego and 1041 E. Vista way in Vista.

Information may be obtained by telephoning 234-3281.

If you know somebody whose physical handicap has kept him from using the phone, maybe we can help. We have special equipment for handicapped persons. For instance, a person who's paralyzed and can't hold a receiver can easily use our regular speakerphone or possibly an operator type headset. A telephone volume control is available for people who have impaired hearing. There are also loud bells, chimes, horns and lights to announce phone calls that otherwise might be missed. For individuals with weak voices, we have phones that amplify.

We believe that telephone service is for everybody. Give us a call at our Business Office, 466-3201, we'll do our best to see about adapting a phone to meet special needs.

Did you know that you can place a single call and talk to several people in different places at the same time? Have a 3 or 4-way conference call? If you'd like to do this, the introductory pages of your phone book tell you how. They're easy to use and full of useful, everyday information like how to dial long distance calls direct, how to find area codes for other communities, how to reach Repair Service. And there's lots more. So, save yourself time and energy—check the front pages first.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

by James Hardison

Have you ever noticed how many streets, roads, and beaches in the San Diego have Spanish names? Would you give some sample of these beautiful names and tell us what they mean?

There are many unusual and beautiful Spanish names which were given to our streets, roads, and beaches. It will be a pleasure to review some of them and how they are used.

Most popular is "calle." This means "street" and is used frequently with street names that contain two or more words like "Calle Chiquita" (Little Street), "Calle Neil" (Neil Street), and "Calle de la Plata" (Street of Silver).

Pronunciation of "calle" sometimes trip us up. We have a tendency to try to pronounce the double "l" (ll) with English phonetics. We should use the Spanish phonetics which treat the double "l" as an English "y" and we would be more likely to pronounce it correctly as "KAH-yeh."

Streets that begin with "camino" (road) are "Camino de Oro" (Road of Gold), "Camino de la Playa" (Road of the Beach), and "Camino de la Costa" (Road of the Coast). Most prominent of the "caminos" is "Camino Real" or "Royal Road."

In the case of "Bahia" (Bay) we tend to pronounce the "h" which is silent in Spanish. Correct pronunciation would be something close to "ba-EE," something close to "bah-EE-ah."

Why not take out your map of San Diego and see how many Spanish words and names you can find. The number may surprise you. These names give great evidence to our earlier Spanish heritage.

Practice phrases below use examples of street names found on your map. Dial 276-2762 and pronounce them with the automatic recording.

The four boys who have completed their Cub requirements and will move onto Boy Scouts are Jeff Whidden, Tom Greene, Ted Greene and Steve Lemon.

Stephen DeNunzio of Den 4 and Stephen Kawamoto of Den 7 will be advanced into Webelos classification, reserved for 10 year old Cubs.

Other events planned for the meeting include a special guest speaker and a film.

First National Absorbs LJ Bank

The oldest and the youngest banks in San Diego County are now one.

The 85-year-old Southern California First National Bank has completed the merger of the 5-year-old Bank of La Jolla, it was announced by C. C. Blakemore, SCFNB president and chief executive officer.

Terms of the merger are for 65,886 shares of SCFNB to be offered in exchange for 82,358 Bank of La Jolla shares outstanding. This is a ratio of eight-tenths of one SCFNB share for each BLJ share.

SCFNB presently is traded in the over-the-counter market at about $50 bid per share, which would make the value of the transaction around $3.3 million.

The merger adds about $15.7 million in resources to SCFNB's $601 million in resources. SCFNB also acquires BLJ offices in La Jolla and Rancho Santa Fe.

Blakemore said that SCFNB "for a short period of time" would maintain all La Jolla offices and that William F. Black, BLJ president, would join SCFNB as a senior vice president.

SGT. RICHARD NORRIS

Sergeant Richard L. Norris, Company C—2nd Bn—22 Inf—25th Inf. Division was recently awarded the Bronze Star Medal with "V" Device for heroism in connection with military operations against a hostile force.

While on a combat operation, Sergeant Norris' platoon came under intense enemy fire. With complete disregard for his own safety, Sergeant Norris charged the enemy bunker firing his rifle and drawing hostile fire as he moved.

Although he was wounded in the leg by the enemy fire, his action covered the other members of his platoon while they moved closer to the enemy bunker and silenced it with grenades.

His valorous actions contributed immeasurably to the success of the mission and the defeat of the enemy force.

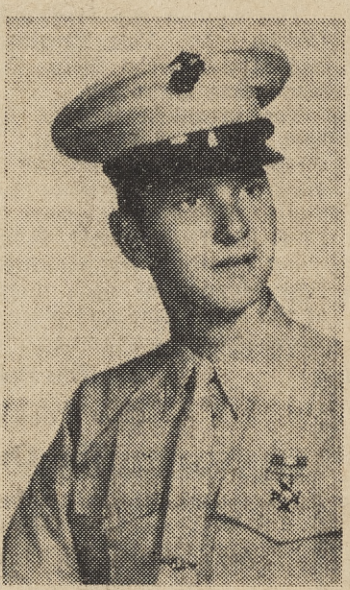

Sergeant Norris' personal bravery and devotion to duty are in keeping with the highest traditions of the military service and reflect great credit upon himself, his unit, the 25th Infantry Division and the United States Army.

Lemon Grove is represented through the Chamber of Commerce and the Lemon Grove Men's Club. Both organizations are backed by some residents of Lemon Grove.

The Men's Club was created more than 25 years ago. Businessmen and civic minded persons attend meetings, usually on Friday at noon, to discuss problems in the community.

In 1959 and 1960 Lemon Grove had a Co-ordinating Council that dealt with serious problems facing the community. A lack of interest by the community forced the organization to fold.

Social Security News

This newspaper presents this question and answer column about the Social Security program as a public service to our readers. The questions are those most frequently asked about Social Security. The answers are provided by Sumio Oto, El Cajon Social Security District Manager.

Q. I am 62 and thinking about retiring. If I take my social security now, how much would my benefit be reduced?

A. Benefits at age 62 are 80 percent of what your benefit would be if you waited until 65 to retire.

Q. I am a Christian Scientist. What good is Medicare to me?

A. Christian Science sanitariums operated or certified by the First Church of Christ, Science, Boston, Massachusetts, qualify as both hospitals and extended care facilities. Most of these sanitariums participate in the Medicare program.

Q. My husband and I were married 25 years when he started paying attention to younger women, so I divorced him. He is drawing his social security now. What about me?

A. I am 63 and never worked under certain conditions to a divorced wife who has reached age 62. To qualify for benefits, a divorced wife must have been married to the worker for 20 years, be unmarried, and meet certain support requirements. Contact your social security office for details.

Q. My mother is recuperating at home now following a long siege in the hospital. We have a housekeeper coming in twice weekly to do the cleaning for mother, would Medicare pay for this as a home health visit?

A. No. Domestic or house-keeping services which are not related to patient health care are not covered as home health services under Medicare.

The El Cajon Social Security Office is located at 574 North Second street in El Cajon. Office hours are from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, and until 7:30 p.m. on Wednesdays. The telephone number is 442-0851.

Van Deerlin Pulls Third Best Vote Among Demo. Congressmen

WASHINGTON — Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D-San Diego, was the third best vote getter among California's 21 Democratic Congressmen in the Nov. 5 elections, a survey by Van Deerlin's office indicates.

The survey measured pulling power at the polls by relating each Congressman's share of the total vote in his district to the Democratic registration.

Positive scores were achieved by candidates able to attract the most votes from Republicans and independents while retaining the support of Democratic voters.

Despite the Nixon tide which swept San Diego County, Van Deerlin fared well in comparison with his colleagues. His vote-getting rating was "plus 7.7," meaning his percentage of the vote (64.6) was that much ahead of the Democratic percentage of voter registration (56.9) in Van Deerlin's 37th Congressional District.

Among the Democrats elected to the House from California, Van Deerlin's drawing power was topped only by Reps. Jerome R. Waldie of Contra Costa County, plus 15.5, and John V. Tunney of Riverside and Imperial counties, plus 9.0.

Throughout the state, 11 of the successful Democratic congressional candidates exceeded Democratic registration figures and 10 fell short of them. The average vote-getting rating for the 21 was plus 0.4, or 7.3 points less than Van Deerlin's score.

Alan Cranston ran 2.7 percentage points behind his party's statewide registration in capturing a U. S. Senate seat for the Democrats.

Greatest Victory

For the San Diego Congressman, the 1968 campaign was his most successful ever. His 43,379-vote margin of victory over Republican Mike Schaefer surpassed by more than 14,000 votes his best previous effort, in 1966.

Vote-pulling scores for the other 18 Democratic Congressmen-elect follow:

Phillip Burton, plus 5.0; Edward R. Roybal, plus 5.2; Jeffrey Cohelan, plus 3.7; Harold T. (Bizz) Johnson, plus 3.7; Augustus F. Hawkins, plus 2.8; George P. Miller, plus 2.8; Chet Holifield, plus 2.7.

Also Thomas M. Rees, plus 0.5; B. F. Sisk, minus 0.2; James C. Corman, minus 0.3; Richard T. Hanna, minus 1.3; John E. Moss, minus 4.3; John J. McFall, minus 4.5.

Others include Robert L. Leggett, minus 4.9; Don Edwards, minus 6.6; Charles H. Wilson, minus 7.0; George E. Brown, Jr., minus 10.1, and Glenn M. Anderson, the delegation's only newcomer, minus 12.1.

Christmas is just around the corner and money for it is way down the street.

AROUND SPRING VALLEY

History Of Community Traced Back To 1776

By TOMMY THOMAS
Editor

It was mentioned in last week's newspaper that late in 1969 the historical pageant of Spring Valley possibly will be presented in front of the old adobe building (Bancroft Ranch House) on Memory In.

Since the pageant was last presented a few years ago, there have been many newcomers to Spring Valley Valley; many persons who have never seen the old adobe and who know nothing, or at least very little of the history of Spring Valley.

For the benefit of these persons, Spring Valley has an enormous amount of history, since the days of the Revolutionary War, way back in 1776.

There are items that have been written about the Indians who lived here in those early days and a few line about the tracks to and from the San Diego Mission in Mission Valley.

There are some historical items regarding the Bancroft Ranch and its former owners. There are a few lines in a San Diego County history book telling of a battle (on which is now Olive drive in Spring Valley) between a group of Indians and a group of Mexicans.

Cannon Balls

In fact, a few round metal objects have been found (and turned over to the S.V. Historical Society) which are believed to have been small cannon balls used in the battle.

The Spring Valley Historical Society, which now owns and maintains the old adobe building, has many relics and old pictures of Spring Valley.

The Society now has a membership campaign going on and anyone in the area interested in Spring Valley history may join at a nominal membership fee.

Back in the '30's, before the large Spring Valley Community Center Hall (later Chamber of Commerce Hall) was built, dances were held in the leanto at the rear of the old adobe building. And it was there the Chamber of Commerce met for quite a spell.

Later when it was felt need for larger quarters, volunteer help pitched in and put up the present Community Center Hall at the rear of the adobe building.

Besides Chamber meetings, many dances and square dances were held there as a means of meeting the monthly expenses.

Church Meetings

Several churches began meeting in the hall before acquiring their own buildings. The Spring Valley Woman's Club has been meeting in the Community Center Hall for several years.

Later the name was changed from Community Center to Chamber of Commerce and then Community Council.

The building and surrounding property was later purchased by Goodbody's Mortuary of San Diego, but local groups still meet in the building.

But what is in store for the Spring Valley area? Only time can answer.

Just a few years ago there were a few hundred persons here. Now there are approximately 36,000.

Plans are under way to make the area more attractive to the newcomers, the tourists and the future generation.

Among the plans is a Sweetwater Lake recreation area; a playground to serve the southwest portion of San Diego County with boating, fishing, camping and many outdoor pleasures.

Of course it is still in the planning stage, but has been in the minds of many local people for a long time.

Council Makes Christmas Plans

The Spring Valley Community Council (formerly Chamber of Commerce) has been making plans for its annual Christmas Light contest for the "Greater" Spring Valley area.

The area includes Casa de Oro, central Spring Valley, La Presa and South Spring Valley.

William Fitzpatrick, acting president in the absence of president Rosalie Graham, says he and Richard Allen, will act as co-chairmen this year.

He said further plans for the contest will be discussed at the December meeting of the Council.

James M. DeCaro Named Radio Station Manager

James M. DeCaro, a Lemon Grove man, has been named station manager of WFIL radio, it was announced by George A. Koehler, General Manager of the Triangle Stations. He fills a vacancy created last February when Koehler became chief executive of the station group.

DeCaro joined the company in 1966 as general sales manager, having served in a similar post at KCBQ in San Diego. He began his professional career as an announcer-salesman at KDEO in El Cajon and went on to become an account executive at KUDE in Oceanside and KOGO in San Diego.

A veteran of three years in the Marine Corps, DeCaro served as a radio correspondent in the Public Information Office of the Third Marine Division. Prior to his military service, he attended San Diego College, majoring in Spanish, Speech Arts and Drama.

In March 1965 he was honored by the Sales and Marketing Executives Club of San Diego as one of that city's "most distinguished salesmen."

Kiwanis, YMCA and Television-Radio Advertising Club are among his major interests. His wife, the former Amy Antoinette Sonka, is the daughter of Mrs. Amy Sonka, of 8296 Golden ave., Lemon Grove. Mrs. Sonka is the widow of Emil Sonka.

The DeCaros live in Berwyn, near Philadelphia, with their two young sons.

Dimes Workers Fete

William Daly, chairman of the San Diego County Chapter of the National Foundation-March of Dimes, has said that approximately 100 volunteers from every county chapter in California will be hosted at the Salk Institute for Biological Studies on Tuesday.

In addition, two special awards, the Homer Streich Award, were presented by Mr. Leverett Bristol, Hospital Administrator, to Pamela Griffen for the longest continuous service and most time given during that time.

The Hospital Honor Award went to Sue Freitas for highest number of hours for the past year. Mrs. Vincent Gann, junior director made the presentation.

Mrs. Gordon Shields and Mrs. Reginald Carlson are co-directors along with Mrs. Gann for the program.

Other members of the Junior Board include: Mrs. William White, Mrs. Edwin Dolan, Mrs. Ernest Denlinger, Mrs. Robert Nitz, Mrs. Curt Phillips, Mrs. Don Graser, and Mrs. Joe Miller.

L.G. Marijuana Rancher Gets Week-Ends Penalty

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A reluctant to follow the probation officer's recommendation on one year in the county jail honor camp because of the defendant's excellent work record.

The judge said there are "plenty of bums who won't work."

Mahedy then said, "How about a weekend sentence for one year?"

The probation officer, somewhat amazed, said he had never heard of a weekend sentence of that length.

Gompertz had pleaded guilty to another marijuana charge earlier this year.

Bill McManaway, Tom Hodgson Win Big Mouth Title

Sporting mouth spans of approximately three inches, two Monte Vista boys won the title "Big Mouth" in an Old Fashioned Apple Eating Contest, Oct. 31 and Nov. 1.

Winners of the contest, which was sponsored by the newly organized Quill and Scroll, were Senior Bill McManaway, who captured the title second lunch, and Sophomore Tom Hodgson, who won first lunch.

"Two representatives were chosen in each class council to participate in the contest," said Annette Warner, contest chairman.

One person held a string by which the apple was suspended, while the other team member attempted to eat the apple.

Before the contest had actually started, members of each class contributed money so that their team might have a chance for a 15-second head start.

The money earned in this way was used by the Quill and Scroll to pay for prizes for the winners. "The purpose of the contest was to gain recognition for the Quill and Scroll as an active organization on campus," Annette Warner said.

LACK OF EXPERIENCE

Monte Vista Closes Football Curtain With 0-6-1 Record

By SCOTT MCGAUGH
Monte Vista Sports Writer

A long football season for the Monte Vista High School grid squad came to an unmerciful end last Saturday, as the Monarchs lost to Mt. Miguel, 37-0, on the loser's field.

The Monarchs, on the first series of downs, ended up losing ground and from there it was downhill as Matador defense held Monte Vista to 10 yards in total offense.

Despite a dismal team showing, the Monarchs did have some outstanding individual performances this season due to some unexpected circumstances.

Junior Vince Campoli didn't figure much in the Monarch running attack until Rob Westcott injured a kidney and was declared out for the season.

Campoli then proceeded to gain 429 yards in 154 carries which was good for third place in league rushing.

Lack of Experience

Lack of experience at the quarterback spot was to be a problem but Mike Nush did well enough to place fifth in league passing with 456 aerial yards. Rich Hammitt also did well as the back-up QB.

Defense was thought to be a strong point and it was as the Monarch's defensive secondary was one of the best in the league. Rich Hammitt was third in the league with three aerial thefts.

Dan Thorpe, Steve Etchings, Bob Thompson, Jess Bower and Jim Patterson constituted an excellent defensive line despite a lack of experience.

Although the Monarchs didn't do well on the statistic sheet, one factor will play a big part next year.

Monte Vista is a young team and the invaluable experience picked up this year plus the incentive of fielding a winning team may make a dim football future light up.

Matadors Close Season On Winning Note Dumping Monte Vista High, 37-0

The Mt. Miguel High School football team closed out the season last Friday on a winning note, when they romped over the hapless Monte Vista Monarchs, 37-0 at the Monte Vista high school football field.

The Matadors struck early, cashing in on a fumble recovery and a 30-yard pass from Mike Tyler to Bill O'Connor.

The Miguel eleven got the ball again later in the first quarter and drove 55 yards on sweeps and drives from Steve Bailey and Mark Deesing.

Larry Caudillo took a Tyler pass from the one-yard line for the six-pointer O'Connor booted the extra point that made the score 14-0.

The Matadors kicked off to the Monarchs after scoring, and the Monte Vistans started a drive of their own, but were stalled around midfield.

The Miguelites took the punt on the 26-yard stripe and launched another march. Mike Tyler, who kept the ball on the first play, found a hole on the left side of the line and fought his way 71 yards to the Monarch three-yard line, where he was knocked out of bounds. Jeff Buckner took the ball over moments later for the TD. O'Connor split the up-urights for the conversion.

After an exchange of punts, the gun sounded to end the half, with the score remaining at 21-0.

The Miguel squad came back after the halftime show and took things easy, settling down to a more defensive-minded game. They pushed the Monte Vista offense back

Cross Country Meet Slated For Jr. High Runners At Helix

The La Mesa Recreation Park district will conduct a Junior High School Cross Country meet at Helix High School this afternoon at 4 p.m.

All junior high school boys have been invited to take part in the meet. They should be at the school no later than 4 p.m. to compete.

Two races for 7th and 8th graders will be held. The course is 1 1/4 miles. Ribbons will be presented to the first five place winners in each race.

Marvin Foye Enters Thanksgiving Tennis Tournament Match

Marvin Foye, 15, of 7413 Tracy in Lemon Grove, will compete in the seventh annual George Salmon Thanksgiving Vacation Junior Tennis Tournament in San Diego's Balboa Park on Nov. 29-Dec. 1.

Marvin will be entered in the boys 16-and-under singles division of the tourney conducted by the San Diego Tennis Patrons Association in cooperation with the San Diego Recreation Department.

Church Sets Polka Dance

Holy Angels Byzantine Catholic Parish is sponsoring a Polka Dance on Saturday, Nov. 30, at St. Columbia's Hall, 3327 Glencolum dr., San Diego.

Eddie Tomazin and his orchestra from Los Angeles will furnish the music for dancing from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

to the twelve-yard line, and the Monarchs had to punt.

The Monte Vista center, however, snapped the ball over the kicker's head, and the ball rolled out of the end zone for an automatic safety.

Mark Deesing Runs

Mark Deesing gobbled up the ball on the free kick, ran to the right where he was met by a flock of Monarchs, cut to the left, picked up a couple of block and sprinted 55 yards for the touchdown. O'Connor got the extra point to stretch the score to 30-0.

The last quarter consisted mostly of exchanges of punts, a host of penalties, and two coaches who were constantly displeased with the referees' decisions.

Finally, the Matadors got their hands on the ball in Monte Vista territory and turned it into another scoring opportunity. Tyler took the ball in on a dive from a couple of yards out, O'Connor kicked.

The Matadors, who have now won their last four contests, after losing their first three league tilts, look for hope in the rule that allows the CIF coaches to pick two at-large participants for the post-season playoffs.

Coach Ben Cipranic, however, was not optimistic about the chances for Mt. Miguel. "We haven't got the record," he explained.

Griffs Look For First League Crown

Grossmont College, sporting it's best football team ever, will take a crack at the South-eastern Conference crown Saturday night at 8 p.m. at Valley Stadium in El Cajon as they play host to Citrus College.

Both schools are tied for the league lead with records of five wins, and one loss.

Grossmont fresh off of 52-0 victory over Southwestern, will not have an easy go at Citrus, the number ten team in the state. Citrus will have Jim Witham back at quarterback after an early season injury took him out of action.

The Griffins will be on guard for an explosive Citrus offense. With the John Polak-Dave Crenshaw combination on the ground, and Bruce Falkenberg, as back up quarterback, trouble has an ideal chance to botch up the battle.

Clint Whitfield, coach of the Griffins said, "The team has come this far and they will not let down for the Citrus game."

Whitfield who substituted freely in the Southwestern match, got an eye full of new talent.

Louis Oril picked off two touchdowns, Ron Continelli picked up while Dave Strom, crossed the line for another score.

Leroy Woods in the sub quarterback slot hit Bob Houle in the fourth quarter for a 63 yard pass. Woods was 3-2-92 in the passing department for the night.

The Griffins picked up 8 fumbles, and three interceptions. They held Southwestern to 36 yards on the ground, and 25 in the air.

Basketball Team Faces Complete Overhaul Process At Mt Miguel

By JOHN NICHOLSON
Mt. Miguel Sports Writer

How does someone go about creating a winning team after losing four out of five varsity players?

That's what Dick Ridgway, coach of Mt. Miguel's basketball team, will be trying to do this year. He will be rebuilding the Matadors around ekn Barstow, the only returning starter from last year's CIF championship team.

Last year, the Miguel squad won 32 straight games and finished the season undefeated.

Although their smallest margin of victory was eleven points, the Matadors were accustomed to winning by scores like 104-57. They were by far the top team in the county.

Barstow, who has grown to a towering height of 6'9" plus, will be helping the team using his experience and ability as a defensive player.

Coach Ridgway considers him one of the best defensive players around, but he is no slouch on the offensive side either.

Last year he poured in fifteen or twenty points per game.

Ridgway also expects help from seniors Mike Drew and Tim Bagley. Drew and "The Bag" both saw action in varsity competition last year, but were rarely starters.

Charlie Gregg and Craig Sandling, along with Richard Brady, will help carry the load according to Ridgway. Other hopefuls include sophomore Mark Swanstrom and junior Pete Rosvaldt.

Monday Scrimmage

Mt. Miguel scrimmage Monday and will do so again Friday in preparation for the season's opener against Hilltop on Nov. 29 and games with Vista and Crawford Dec. 3 and 6.

Ridgway is hoping to use the same attacking type defense that brought success last year. "We hope that our speed and quickness can be used. It seems to create lots

Helix Sends 7 Harriers To CIF Preliminaries At Santana High School

By TOM WARREN
Helix High Sports Reporter

The Helix High School varsity cross country team will send its top seven men into competition tomorrow as they enter the CIF preliminaries at Santana.

The meet will begin at 3 p.m. on a course that has been specially layed out for the event.

Helix will be counting on the strong running of senior Darryl Simmons, who has consistently led the team since the sidelining of sophomore Ed Mendoza midway through the season.

His top competition should be Monte Vista senior Dave Carter, who hasn't been defeated the entire season.

Last week the harriers rolled over Grossmont 19-44 on the two-mile Helix rain course. Finishing first in the meet was Simmons, who came in with a time of 10:10.

Also qualifying for the Scots were Dennis Rodgers, Curt Smith, Steve Pitt, and Robin Schultz, who finished third, fourth, fifth, and sixth respectively.

Not far behind them were Highlanders Don Moore and George Miller.

The Grossmont meet was the last league contest of the season for the harriers, and it left them with a 4-3 record, good enough for third place in the Grossmont League standings.

A Good Season

Helix coach Mike Muirhead called the season "a good one" and pointed out that "any time you can win over half of your meets you've had a successful season."

The junior varsity squad soundly defeated the Foothillers also, dropping them by a score of 16-46.

Qualifying for Helix were Mark Stockdale (first), Greg Hickman (second), Dob Van Elsberg (third), Bob Bishop (fourth), and Luke Nyndorff (sixth). The win brought their league record to 6-1 and left them in second place.

Their only loss came at the hands of a powerful Monte Vista squad which finished its season undefeated.

The Freshmen won their race also, 22-23, with Highlanders finishing in a tie for first, fourth, seventh, and eighth.

MV Harriers Pick Off Mt. Miguel; Win League Crown

The Monte Vista High School Cross Country team, with clear sailing, picked off the Grossmont League title Tuesday afternoon by dumping Mt. Miguel 15-49.

The Monarchs, with a 7-0 slate for the season took the first six places in the race. Mt. Miguel was paced by Gary Heiserman who took a seventh place.

For the Monarchs, Dave Carter, season workhorse, was just five seconds off of the track record in his first place win with a time of nine minutes, 39 seconds.

Mt. Miguel closed the season with a second place tie with Grossmont High School. Both schools have 5-2 records.

In the official standings, Mt. Miguel will be given an undisputed second place in league standings. They beat third place Helix High, while Grossmont fell to them.

Local Merchant Receives Honor

This newspaper salutes Harold Franklin as Lemon Grove Merchant of the Week. Franklin is owner of the All American Upholstery & Drapery Co., 7761 Broadway, Lemon Grove. He has been in the San Diego area for 35 years. For 33 years he has been working in the upholstery field. His wife, Bette, and a son, Ron, also work in the company. Franklin has been at the same location in Lemon Grove for seven years. He has been here for a total of 12 years as a businessman. His son Ron, who lives in Lemon Grove, operates a North Park shop.

The local merchant provides quality experienced workmanship at fair prices. He said that estimates can be given without obligations.

The three golden balls, symbol of the pawnbroker's shop, probably dates back to medieval money lenders of Italy.

Forgery Charges Slapped On Youth Holding Credit Cards

Deputies stopped an 18-year-old youth at Broadway and Olive in Lemon Grove on Nov. 9. He had been operating a motor vehicle with inoperative license plate lights.

When deputies asked the youth for his drivers license they noted a number of credit cards.

It is believed that the youth had been using them for purchases of gasoline. They did not belong to him.

At the same time, they noted that he had been drinking alcoholic beverages while under age. He was taken to the Lemon Grove sub station where he was questioned.

After finding out that he was using the credit cards without the approval of the owners, he was arrested for forgery, and possession of stolen goods.

He was transported to the County jail where he was booked for the necessary charges.

In other cases David Lee Rowe, 3848 Paula st., Lemon Grove who is a sales clerk at a local store, told officials that someone entered his car by breaking the vent and took a tachometer valued at $60.

A window had been broken to gain entry into the school. Value of the recorder has been placed at $30. A teacher's desk in the same room received a cleaning.

Carl Van Herranger turned over to officials at the Lemon Grove sub station a convertible cooler.

It had the name of an El Cajon resident in it and is being returned to the proper owner.

Manuel Matthew Real, 33, of 2018 Ensenada, Lemon Grove was arrested while under the influence of alcoholic beverages.

He had gone to sleep in his vehicle that was parked in such a manner that it was a traffic hazard.

Michael A. Gentile, 3560 Niblick dr., Lemon Grove lost a $50 eight track car stereo Nov. 11 when thieves entered his car by breaking the vent window.

James E. Burdick, 7154 London ln., Lemon Grove, is missing some $135 in goods taken from his home between Nov. 8-11.

The Contemporary Living Room

In contemporary decor many color schemes are possible for the living room. Too delicate tints are generally ruled out as being inappropriate. A room's colors, it should be remembered, have a relation to the degree of formality of the furnishings; subtle harmonies are best worked out in formal interiors, and more naive contrasts in informal arrangements. One general test of the success of a color scheme is that it gives a "lift" to the spirit of the person who enters the room.

The colors in a living room should be harmonious and never obtrusive. However, a certain degree of definiteness is necessary. For example, walls should not be painted in colors which are too evasive, for if a surface has no pattern it needs the distinction of color and texture to give it interest. If wall paper is used, the colors and pattern need to have character; so-called neutral effects are too apt to be merely weak. In other words, walls should have either good pattern or distinguished plain color.

While a living room should not be too individual, the owner's interests may well be expressed in the furnishings. Shelves for the book lover's volumes or the antiquarian's collections of glass or pottery are easily fitted into an ensemble. Painted color on shelves will make them a more integrated part of the room and an effective background for the objects they hold: pale blue for glass and pale orange for old blue plates, for example. The print collector's favorite example's can be arranged in a double line along the wall, the mats and frames supplying another color accent if desired.

Modern furniture tends to be compactly arranged along the side of a room, leaving the center free. More and more we are coming to realize that comfort and hospitality demand that central avenues be kept clear and corners for sitting and talking be provided. The more open floor area which results makes the hue and pattern of the rugs and carpets especially important.

The color of the walls of a modern room demands careful thought because, for one reason, the lower height of the furniture — secretaries, bookcases and cabinets — leave greater areas of the wall open to the eye. Storage space is obtained by extending such pieces horizontally instead of vertically. A discreet limitation of the number of articles of furniture — another characteristic of today's well planned interior — adds to this emphasis on walls and floors.

Reformed Pin-Up Girls Talk

Ask any reformed pin-up girl — one who now has her own flameless electric clothes dryer, that is — about the days when she used to pin up her wet wash and then sit and hope it wouldn't rain during the hours her clothes were drying.

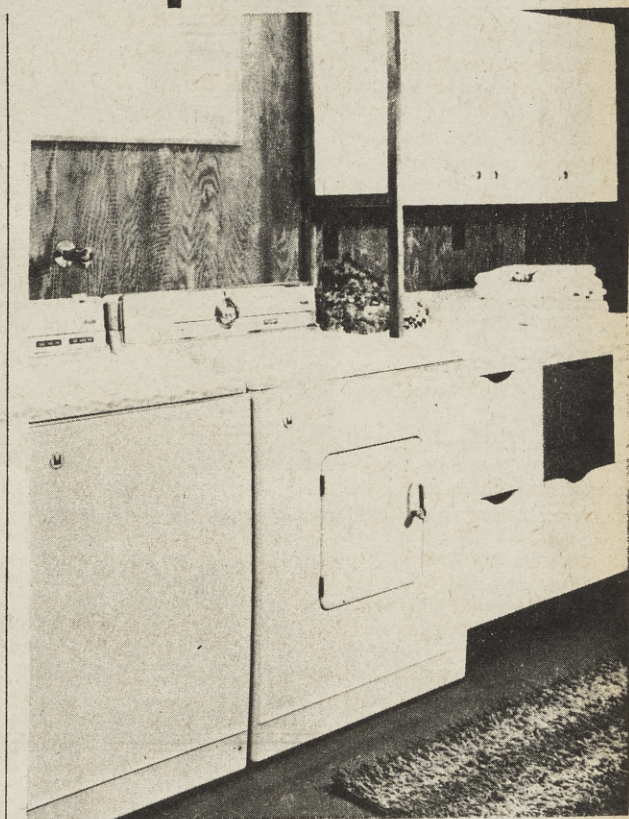

She'll tell you the speed and convenience of an electric dryer seem almost heaven-sent, for now, she can wash her clothes any day of the week, at any hour of the day or night and dry them quickly, automatically and sunshine-bright without any of the bothersome, back-breaking clothesline routine, according to the Live Better Electrically Program.

Clothes stay bright and new-looking — sunshine fresh but not sunshine faded. And, for all those new permanent press clothes you're buying, it's important to remember that most makers recommend tumble drying after washing to keep that press crisp and new.

Electric clothes dryers carry an extra bonus. Because they are flameless and need no flue or pilot, you can install them almost anywhere in the house. What's more, an electric dryer costs less to buy and has fewer parts to service. With these extras, you can have your laundry closer to bedroom and bathroom areas where most dirty clothes collect. No trudging out to the line; no trudging up and down stairs each time it's time to wash.

SPRAY PAINTING

To get the smoothest possible finish with a spray paint the home handyman should avoid holding the spray can too close to the work surface. Hold it at least eight inches away and keep it moving steadily. It should be remembered that two light coats will always cover better than one heavy one. In addition, there will be much less likelihood of dripping or running because too much was applied.

Electric Helpers Make Cleaning Quick, Easy

Total-electric homes stay cleaner than most. But people come and go, bringing dust and dirt on clothes and shoes. Dogs shed hair, people drop ashes, waxed floors get scuffed, and things get spilled.

Housework is light work, though, when you're fully equipped with electric home-care appliances, and have convenience outlets readily available all over the house, as you do in a Gold Medal Home.

For quick, every-day clean-up, the lightweight portable vacuum is a mighty mite, especially useful for above-the-floor cleaning. Keep it hanging on a convenient wall, or inside the broom closet door. The electric broom is another handy device for quick floor clean-up.

Canister vacuums are now designed to accommodate a wide variety of attachments. Their cleaning power has been made more versatile through the addition of variable suction controls which match suction to different floor surfaces and materials. One manufacturer make a "floor conditioner" which scrubs, mops, picks up water, waxes and polishes floors and shampoos rugs!

The ultimate in home care equipment is the built-in vacuum system, through which dirt, debris and even liquids are sucked into a central container which is emptied at intervals. Manufacturers expect about 75,000 such systems to be installed in homes during 1968.

Relaxing Way to Improve Decor: Rugs, Hand-Hooked

Handicrafts go far back in our history. Many of these venerable crafts added decoration and beauty to the homes of the first settlers.

Just as in the past, there is satisfaction in making colorful accessories for the home. Rug hooking is one of the crafts that has gained prestige and momentum and is the pastime of women of all ages. It is an old and honored handicraft, always beautiful, but once painstakingly slow. Now, new materials and techniques make latch hook rug making as easy as it is rewarding.

One reason for the trend to rug hooking is that new importance has accrued to floors today — for fashion has taken the low road and sitting at near ground level is the "in" way to relax. Therefore, the area rug has become a valuable decorating tool, an adjunct to comfort, useful for performing tricks of space division, and designed along with fabrics and accessories to contribute life and excitement to the new home scene.

As becomes their status, rugs today flaunt mad colors, bold designs and some rugs even shout for attention while others have pattern impact on the eye — to give it that with-it decor.

Bearing this in mind, Bernat, the nation's largest yarn producer, has developed a rug hooking method which eliminates bulky looms and frames and a color story that runs the gamut from soft to bright, dark to light and even tweeds. With a simple latch hook technique and pre-cut rug wool, Bernat has made the creation of beautiful rugs for the home pure pleasure.

HAND-HOOKED RUGS in special sizes and shapes can enhance those "hard to decorate" areas of a home. This unusual "Bricks" pattern looks lovely in front of a long buffet under a coffee table, or in a hallway. It comes in two easy-to-make sizes, 31x77 inches and 24x43 inches. "Bricks" pattern by Bernat Yarns.

Today's hooking artisan doesn't have to work on a table, one's lap will do, and like painting by numbers, the canvas has been tinted in the color of the design. Mistakes are impossible and the finished product a creative dream.

No matter your decor — traditional, classic, provincial or modern, there are more than 100 designs detailed in the Bernat Rug Manual 133 which is available in yarn shops and needlecraft departments across the country.

For the sportsman in your life, there's a magnificent Blue Marlin on a white ground, or a Ski Lodge nestled in the Alpine mountains — but if Early American is your province, look for the magnificent American Eagle or a Harvest Garland for a provincial setting.

One of the fads that is gaining in importance is to put a rug "on the carpet," a revival of a favorite Victorian decorating trick — and it affords an ideal way to break up a large expanse of solid color with a splash of colors.

Feel daring and want to express your own personality, then use a blank canvas and the Rug Manual will give instructions on how to create your own design. One woman produced the silhouette of her family home with the date when it was built — and a man, his family crest.

A modern day hooking bee can be a family affair. It spells good company, fun and relaxation. Regardless of the use or design, hand hooked rugs provide a rewarding and practical creative outlet for floor or wall or as covers for fireside cushions.

Get Lowdown on Top Subject

Homeowners and buyers may now talk intelligently when selecting a roof for their homes using a new 24-page booklet entitled, "The Low-Down on Roofs."

The often confusing subject of selecting a roof is dealt with simply, and covers such subjects as the qualities desired in selecting the materials and what to look for when inspecting an older roof. A study of the glossary of roofing terms permits the reader to sound like a roof expert.

The detailed color guide shows how to match the roof with house style, house color and doors. The booklet even gives a brief history of roofs through the ages, and illustrates roof styles, such as plantation and mansard.

Here, Holiday Clean-Up Tips from the Pros Save You Work

Knowing that Santa can be counted on to do-his-own-thing — spread cheer all through the house — most women are getting ready for the consequences. For homemakers, traditional holiday joys such as Christmas tree, family dinners and parties inevitably bring spills and spot accidents on furnishings.

But these footnotes (smudges) on the Christmas scene need not take their toll of decor or of your spirits, say the country's leading home care professionals. Fast treatment will keep almost all spots from becoming stains, advise the specialists of ServiceMaster, whose gift of house-wide service lasts throughout the year.

In fact, when candle-wax drops on the sofa or soda pop spills on the carpet, what you do at home often means more than anything the pro does later on.

Here are tips on how to deal with these and other specialized signs of holiday cheer, according to the experts:

Keep your cool is the first rule of handling big and little spot disasters. Take command, and scoop up the spillage with tissue or paper toweling.

Sticky problems, such as pitch from the Christmas tree, should be scraped up with a tool or spoon, then sponged with a solvent cleaner.

Never make the mistake of rubbing fabrics, caution the pros, since this action only disturbs the fibers. Instead, add pressure as needed with the heel of the hand, and work toward the center of the area.

Since no one solution will be equally effective on all spots, because of the variety of textures, weaves and dyes in today's materials, part of your pre-holiday clean-up preparations probably will include a kit with different cleaners for treating food, ink, dye, oil, paint, gum and even pet stains.

The gay, but unstable colors in holiday wrapping paper and ribbons, or skirting around the tree will leave a stain on sofa or carpet when wet or moist. As quickly as possible, mop up the excess coloring and apply a synthetic cleaner specifically designed for fabrics. Use the sponge - and - blot approach. Lacking a first-aid cleaner, dampen the spot with water to dilute the discoloration and blot as long as moisture remains.

TO INSURE INSECT-FREE roses, spray on a regular basis — every 7 to 14 days — during the growing season. For an insecticide which will control all the major insect pests ask for Spectracide. Photo, courtesy Geigy Chemical Corporation.

Enjoy Seasons of Beauty with Roses! Here's the 'Key'

One reason the rose is high on the most-liked list of garden flowers to improve the outdoor appearance of the home, is that it gives gardens color from June into October and even longer, in some areas. Even the novice gardener can have a steady supply of insect-free roses, either in the garden or as cut flowers indoors throughout this long season.

There are two keys to success with roses: cutting and spraying.

Knowing where to cut a rose flower is the secret of continuous bloom. On the flower stem you will see both three- and five-leaflet leaves. Cut the stem a quarter of an inch above any of the five-leaflet leaves. A new flower-producing shoot will emerge from the joint of leaf and stem. In less than six weeks you will have another flower.

Of course, for longer in-home enjoyment of cut roses, cut the flower before it is fully open.

To insure insect-free Roses, entomologists at Geigy Chemical Corporation recommend spraying on a regular basis — every seven to fourteen days during the growing season.

There are a number of different kinds of insects found on roses during the growing season — which takes in Spring, Summer and Fall. Spectracide, an insecticide for the entire garden, will control all the common insect pests that attack roses. It contains Diazinon which has been proven to be highly effective even against insects immune to some other insecticides.

To be thoroughly effective, the entire plant should be covered properly with mixed spray until the leaves drip. This includes wetting stems and both sides of the leaves. Aphids, for instance, are found in all these places. You may not notice them on the plant in the garden, but you will when cut roses are brought indoors.

SUN PORCH? DEVELOP ITS 'PERSONALITY'

Yesterday's old-fashioned sun porch can be tomorrow's modern family room. The necessary ingredients are some imaginative planning and competent handyman work.

A more informal decorating theme can be followed in the renovated sun porch to blend comfort and good looks. A spacious family room, with plenty of natural light, is ideal for informal entertaining throughout the year.

One of the most important points to consider when redecorating a sun porch is easy maintenance, since the area will receive hard wear. To create a handsome woodgrain decor that can be washed, install plastic-finish planks right over the old wall surfaces. Highly-resistant to heat and moisture, the planks have a baked plastic finish that can be damp-wiped clean.

Easy to handle, the planks are usually secured with wall-board adhesive and simple metal clips. The planks usually have tongue-and-groove edges to simplify fitting.

This informal woodgrain decor is extremely versatile, and many types of furnishings will blend well with the theme. Early American furnishings are particularly effective.

Vaporizer? Humidifier?

Many home-owners and apartment-dwellers both are confused about the difference between and the functions of the vaporizer and the room humidifier.

The familiar vaporizer provides the conventional, hot steam therapy for the relief of upper respiratory illnesses.
Most physicians recommend it for colds, sinusitis and similar ailments.

The portable, room humidifier, on the other hand, provides a cool mist to compensate for the lack of sufficient moisture in the air in dry, heated rooms.

Relative humidity can be described as the amount of moisture in the air compared to the amount the air is able to hold at a given temperature.
Warm air, of course, holds more moisture than cold air.

What happens is that when the air in a house or room is heated, its moisture-retaining capacity is increased. Therefore, the warm air tends to draw out moisture from furniture, walls and you and your complexion.

Many authorities believe that by raising the humidity in a room and thereby keeping your nasal passages moist, the room humidifier may help to prevent conditions that can bring on colds.

During the winter heating season, the dry air we breathe breaks down the process through which mucus passes down into the throat, carrying with it bacteria, dust and other foreign matter, eventually to pass out of the body. The normal, moist linings dry out, and the mucus doesn't travel out of the body. Bacteria stay in the nose to incubate and possibly infect the nasal passages.

But the possible benefits of the room humidifier in preventing colds are perhaps outweighed by its many other positive advantages.

Above all, the room humidifier relieves discomfort — the discomfort of dry, heated rooms
— by adding moisture to the air in the form of cool droplets.
It prevents that awful, stuffy feeling many persons wake up with, the result of drying up of the nasal passages.

The portable room humidifier keeps both the complexion and furniture and precious objects from "drying up" by adding moisture to the dry, hot room.

Finally, humidification will save home heating costs by providing a proper level of moisture in the air. Less heat will be required because your skin will not feel as dry and you won't feel as cold.

Some physicians, incidentally, recommend the "cool steam" portable room humidifier for treatment of certain respiratory conditions.

Humidifiers, which once were available only in costly models, can now be bought in the twelve to twenty-five dollar range. According to the Vaporizer-Humidifier Council, made up of leading manufacturers of inexpensive types of both products, humidification is particularly important in baby's room although the discomfort of overly dry air affects men and women of all ages.

Acoustical ceilings offer a practical, easy way to absorb noise in the activity areas of the home. Capable of soaking up as much as 75% of the noise, striking their surface, they create an atmosphere in which you can "feel" the quiet.

So, if you're in a mood to update your home this year, don't wear blinders. Consider your total living environment and not just the new addition or that brand new kitchen.

How To Make Your Kitchen Sink More Efficient

A Favorite Household Aide Can Renew Furniture's 'Complexion'

Only antique furniture is granted the privilege of looking its age... and it has to be a hundred years old or better to qualify. So if any of your furniture, particularly that of recent vintage, is getting to look antique-y... it's time to restore its youth.

Tables, most vulnerable to wear and tear, seem to age the fastest. Usually finished, as is most wood furniture, with varnish lacquer, or sometimes shellac and rubbed to a high polish, they're prone to scratches, alcohol stains, heat marks and bloom (a gray discoloration), or the affliction may be nothing more serious than a build-up of old furniture wax that has turned dark and splotchy.

Unupholstered chairs come second in terms of aging. Here you have a different set of problems. Tops, where chairs are grasped to be pulled away from the table, discolor. Legs and rungs get scuffed, particularly when there are youngsters in the house who like to either swing their feet as they sit so that heels hit the rungs or wrap their feet round the legs.

Now while professional restoring is costly, the do-it-yourself variety calls for little more than an expenditure of your time. It's time you won't begrudge when the job is done and you see the results and count your savings.

The most tedious and time-consuming part of the operation is removing the old finish. While most amateurs associate this step with special hardware store-bought products, the professional restorers who work on fine old pieces prefer the common household cleaner, sal soda concentrated, which you find in the laundry supply section of your local grocery store. This offers some distinct advantages to the do-it-yourselfer. Since it's odorless you don't have to work outdoors or in large airy, probably chilly quarters as a precaution against toxic fumes. It's far less hard on your hands and

Looking for ways to increase the efficiency of your kitchen sink? These four suggestions come from the Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Information Bureau:

1. Replace your old sink with a two or three-bowl type to multiply its simultaneous uses.
2. Make sure your faucet has an aerator. It will create millions of bubbles in the water that will cause soap to suds up faster and easier. You'll save on water too.
3. Get a spray attachment. One with a flexible stainless steel hose is now available.
4. Replace your old drain plug with a "remote control" stopper installed next to the faucet. It will end groping in the sink when it's full of water.

costs a fraction of what the special products do.

The strength of the solution you'll need... you simply pour sal into hot water... is determined by the malady. For a simple case of wax build-up, three tablespoons of the sal to the quart of water sponged over the surface, rinsed with fresh water and wiped dry is the prescribed cure. For varnish, lacquer or shellac, use a cup of the sal to the quart of water and apply the solution to a small area at a time with medium steel wool. Rinse, wipe dry. Run over the surface with fine sandpaper. Wrap the sandpaper around a block of wood for tables, and around a hard, dry cellulose sponge for chairs. The sponge has just enough give to let sandpaper dig into the rounded and fluted areas. Work on chairs on a newspaper-covered table to eliminate back-bending. Since you'll be in a comfortable position, you'll do a better job.

As for the best type of finish to use, consult your hardware dealer from whom you buy it. Just be sure the wood is completely dry before you apply it.

LIMBER CORNER?... If you guessed that this is a new-type home exercise unit, you'd be all wet. It's the latest in corner showers and keeps even a small bathroom looking spacious. Now there's a corner shower that, though space-saving, makes even a small bathroom look spacious.

It features a "column" that is actually an unusual folding shower door that moves on closed track to either side of the rounded corner shower receptor and takes up only eight inches when closed.

Manufacturers claim it is ideal for bathroom remodeling jobs as well as new home construction because it is easy to install and provides a spacious, elegant look in the shower area while taking up less space than the old fashioned conventional square or angle shower stalls with their rigid doors and walls. Showerfold Door Corp. makes it.

Use Plants To Control Climate Of Your Home... Plan Comfort Plus Beauty

How would you like to "trap the sun," giving you an area that may be 10 degrees or more warmer in sunny weather, even on the coldest days? Or make your home warmer in winter and cooler in summer? This can be accomplished at most home locations by the proper planting of trees and shrubs, according to experts.

Both beauty and comfort can be designed into your home landscaping. While you will wish to consult with a good nurseryman, here are some of the ways to control extremes of weather by use of plantings.

1. From what direction do the coldest winds come in winter? On what side of your home a suitable windbreak can make your home and yard warmer in winter, even help to lower your fuel consumption to some extent. In an experimental test of a perfectly planted windbreak, fuel cost was reduced 22.9 percent. Winter winds, more than the cold itself cause heavier fuel bills.

TREES TO PLANT IN A LAWN

To many home owners the picture of a perfect lawn is one that contains two basic elements: Grass and trees. Certainly it's possible to have a fine lawn with grass alone but the addition of one or more trees generally enhances the setting.

Because trees do add a "certain something" to the landscape, the California Association of Nurserymen strongly recommends planting the right tree in the right place. Small to medium-size trees that won't overpower the landscape should be used for planting in lawn areas. Larger trees not only all but obliterate the view of the house, but excessive shade can create gardening problems, too.

A favorite for lawn plantings is the European White Birch. This white-barked deciduous tree is most effectively planted in groups of three at four-to-six feet apart. Slender and graceful, the branches are pendulous and have a light, airy look to them. These will be available soon in the bare foot bins of C.A.N. nurseries, and most nurserymen will have a few sizes to choose from.

The Sweet Gum (Liquidamber) has been a popular choice for lawns for decades. A specimen tree, this takes to the foreground or background with equal success. It is one tree that colors-up in mild winter areas before dropping its leaves. Nursery research has recently developed Liquidambars that sport shower displays of autumn color. Among these are Afterglow, Palo Alto and Burgundy. These may not be readily available throughout the state, but are worthy of searching for. Each has a distinctive characteristic all its own when it comes to coloring-up in the fall.

Among evergreen trees for lawn planting, the St. Mary's Magnolia is a top choice. This is a smaller counterpart of the magnificent Southern Magnolia, which is a California favorite, with deep green leaves and rust color underneath. Blooms are larger than those of the Southern Magnolia — ten to twelve inches in diameter.

For gardeners that like to experiment, the C.A.N. suggests there are many good possibilities. Some taller conifers and large-growing shrubs make excellent substitutes for trees.

2. Usually, but not always, cooling summer breezes tend to blow at right angles to the customary cold winter winds. Thus, by curving the windbreak slightly, opening it up in the summer breeze direction onto his property or "outdoor living room."

3. Sun can be "trapped" in patio areas where the winds have been shut off by plants or the walls of the home. Everyone has experienced to some degrees the warmth on the south side of his home in winter. This warmth can be enhanced in winter considerably with evergreen plants; while the area will be cooler in summer if it has a deciduous shade tree which cuts off the sun in summer; and, in shedding its leaves, lets in the winter sun when you need it. A good shade tree transfers the heat in summer from the earth level to the top of the tree. Depending on the type of tree it can be 5 to 10 degrees cooler in the shade, making the difference between comfort and discomfort.
